A BILL

To establish the Commission on Evidence-Based Policymaking, and for other purposes.

- 1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2   tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4       This Act may be cited as the “Evidence-Based Policy-
- 5   making Commission Act of 2015”.

1   SEC. 2. ESTABLISHMENT.

2       There is established in the executive branch a com-
3   mission to be known as the “Commission on Evidence-4   Based Policymaking” (in this Act referred to as the “Com-5   mission”).

6   SEC. 3. MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION.

7       (a) NUMBER AND APPOINTMENT.—The Commission
8   shall be comprised of 15 members as follows:

9               (1) Three shall be appointed by the President, 10          of whom—

11                       (A) 1 shall be an academic researcher, 12                  data expert, or have experience in administering 13                  programs;

14                       (B) 1 shall have expertise in database
15                  management, confidentiality, and privacy mat-16                  ters; and

17                       (C) 1 shall be the Director of the Office of 18                  Management and Budget (or the Director’s des-19                  ignee).

20               (2) Three shall be appointed by the Speaker of 21          the House of Representatives, of whom—

22                       (A) 2 shall be academic researchers, data
23                  experts, or have experience in administering
24                  programs; and

1                   (B) 1 shall have expertise in database
2                   management, confidentiality, and privacy mat-
3                   ters.

4                   (3) Three shall be appointed by the Minority
5                   Leader of the House of Representatives, of whom—

6                   (A) 2 shall be academic researchers, data
7                   experts, or have experience in administering
8                   programs; and

9                   (B) 1 shall have expertise in database
10                  management, confidentiality, and privacy mat-
11                  ters.

12                  (4) Three shall be appointed by the Majority
13                  Leader of the Senate, of whom—

14                  (A) 2 shall be academic researchers, data
15                  experts, or have experience in administering
16                  programs; and

17                  (B) 1 shall have expertise in database
18                  management, confidentiality, and privacy mat-
19                  ters.

20                  (5) Three shall be appointed by the Minority
21                  Leader of the Senate, of whom—

22                  (A) 2 shall be academic researchers, data
23                  experts, or have experience in administering
24                  programs; and

(B) 1 shall have expertise in database management, confidentiality, and privacy matters.

(b) EXPERTISE.—In making appointments under this section, consideration should be given to individuals with expertise in economics, statistics, program evaluation, data security, confidentiality, or database management.

8       (e) CHAIRPERSON AND Co-CHAIRPERSON.—The 9 President shall select the chairperson of the Commission
10 and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall se-11 lect the co-chairperson.

12 (d) Timing of Appointments.—Appointments to 13 the Commission shall be made not later than 45 days after 14 the date of enactment of this Act.

15       (e) TERMS; VACANCIES.—Each member shall be ap-16 pointed for the duration of the Commission. Any vacancy 17 in the Commission shall not affect its powers, and shall 18 be filled in the manner in which the original appointment 19 was made:

20 (f) COMPENSATION.—Members of the Commission
21 shall serve without pay.

22 (g) TRAVEL EXPENSES.—Each member of the Com-23 mission shall be allowed travel expenses, including per 24 diem in lieu of subsistence, at rates authorized for employ-25 ees of agencies under subchapter I of chapter 57 of title

1   5, United States Code, while away from their homes or 2 regular places of business in the performance of services
3 for the Commission.

4 SEC. 4. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION.

5       (a) STUDY OF DATA.—The Commission shall conduct
6 a comprehensive study of the data inventory, data infra-
7 structure, and statistical protocols related to Federal pol-
8 icymaking and the statistical and programmatic agencies 9 responsible for maintaining that data to—

10           (1) determine the optimal arrangement for 11 which administrative data on Federal programs and 12 tax expenditures and related data series may be in-13 tegrated and made available to facilitate program 14 evaluation, continuous improvement, policy-relevant 15 research, and cost-benefit analyses by qualified re-16 searchers and institutions;

17           (2) make recommendations on how data infra-
18 structure and protocols should be modified to best 19 fulfill the objectives identified in paragraph (1); and 20           (3) make recommendations on how best to in-21 corporate outcomes measurement, institutionalize

22 randomized controlled trials, and rigorous impact 23 analysis into program design.

24       (b) CLEARINGHOUSE.—In undertaking the study re-25 quired by subsection (a), the Commission shall consider

1 if and how to create a clearinghouse for program and sur-2 vey data, which shall include evaluation of—

3 (1) what administrative data that are relevant
4 for program evaluation and Federal policymaking
5 should be included in a potential clearinghouse;

6 (2) which survey data the administrative data 7 identified in paragraph (1) may be linked to, in ad-8 dition to linkages across administrative data series;

9 (3) what are the legal and administrative bar-
10 riers to including or linking these data series;

11 (4) what data-sharing infrastructure should be 12 used to facilitate data merging and access for re-13 search purposes;

14 (5) how a clearinghouse could be self-funded;

15 (6) which types of qualified researchers, offi-
16 cials, and institutions should have access to data;

17 (7) what limitations should be placed on the use 18 of data provided;

19 (8) how to protect information and ensure indi-
20 vidual privacy and confidentiality;

21 (9) how the data and results of research can be 22 used to inform program administrators and policy-23 makers to improve program design; and 24 (10) what incentives may facilitate interagency 25 sharing of information to improve programmatic ef-

1       feffectiveness and enhance data accuracy and com-
2       prehensiveness.

3       (e) REPORT.—Upon the affirmative vote of at least 4       three-quarters of the members of the Commission, the 5       Commission shall submit to the President and Congress 6       a detailed statement of its findings and conclusions as a 7       result of the study required by subsection (a), together
8       with its recommendations for such legislation or adminis-
9       trative actions as the Commission considers appropriate 10      in light of the results of the study.

11       (d) DEADLINE.—The report under subsection (e)
12      shall be submitted not later than the date that is 15 13      months after the date a majority of the members of the 14      Commission are appointed pursuant to section 3.

15       (e) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term “adminis-16      trative data” means data—

17           (1) held by an agency or a contractor or grant-18           ee of an agency (including a State or unit of local 19           government); and 20           (2) collected for other than statistical purposes.

21      SEC. 5. OPERATION AND POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.

22       (a) ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANCE.—The heads of 23      the following agencies shall advise and consult with the 24      Commission on matters within their respective areas of re-25      sponsibility:

- 1                 (1) The Bureau of the Census.
- 2                 (2) The Internal Revenue Service.
- 3                 (3) The Department of Health and Human
- 4                 Services.
- 5                 (4) The Department of Agriculture.
- 6                 (5) The Department of Housing and Urban De-
- 7                 velopment.
- 8                 (6) The Social Security Administration.

- 12                 (10) The Bureau of Economic Analysis.
- 13                 (11) The Bureau of Labor Statistics.
- 14                 (12) Any other agency, as determined by the
- 15                 Commission.

16                 (b) MEETINGS.—The Commission shall meet not

17                 later than 30 days after the date upon which a majority

18                 of its members have been appointed and at such times

19                 thereafter as the chairperson or co-chairperson shall deter-

20                 mine.

21                 (c) RULES OF PROCEDURE.—The chairperson and 22                 co-chairperson shall, with the approval of a majority of 23                 the members of the Commission, establish written rules

24                 of procedure for the Commission, which shall include a

1 quorum requirement to conduct the business of the Com-
2 mission.

3 (d) HEARINGS.—The Commission may, for the pur-
4 pose of carrying out this Act, hold hearings, sit and act
5 at times and places, take testimony, and receive evidence 6 as the Commission considers appropriate.

7 (e) CONTRACTS.—The Commission may contract 8 with and compensate government and private agencies or 9 persons for any purpose necessary to enable it to carry 10 out this Act.

11 (f) MAIls.—The Commission may use the United 12 States mails in the same manner and under the same con-13 ditions as other agencies of the Federal Government.

14 (g) GIFTS.—The Commission may accept, use, and 15 dispose of gifts or donations of services or property.

16 SEC. 6. FUNDING.

17 Subject to the availability of appropriations—

18 (1) at the request of the Director of the Cen-19 sus, the agencies identified as “Principal Statistical 20 Agencies” in the report, published by the Office of 21 Management and Budget, entitled “Statistical Pro-

9 sion.*

10 SEC. 4. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION.

11       (a) STUDY OF DATA.—*The Commission shall conduct
12 a comprehensive study of the data inventory, data infra-13 structure, and statistical protocols related to Federal policy-14 making and the agencies responsible for maintaining that 15 data to—*

16           (1) *determine the optimal arrangement for which 17 administrative data on Federal programs and tax ex-18 penditures, survey data, and related statistical data 19 series may be integrated and made available to facil-
20 tate program evaluation, continuous improvement, 21 policy-relevant research, and cost-benefit analyses by 22 qualified researchers and institutions;*

23           (2) *make recommendations on how data infra-
24 structure and statistical protocols should be modified*

1       to best fulfill the objectives identified in paragraph 2       (1); and

3                   (3) make recommendations on how best to incor-4                  porate outcomes measurement, institutionalize ran-5                  domized controlled trials, and rigorous impact anal-6                  ysis into program design.

(b) CLEARINGHOUSE.—In undertaking the study required by subsection (a), the Commission shall—

9                   (1) consider whether a clearinghouse for program 10          and survey data should be established and how to cre-11          ate such a clearinghouse; and

12 (2) evaluate—

(B) which survey data the administrative data identified in subparagraph (A) may be linked to, in addition to linkages across administrative data series;

(C) what are the legal and administrative barriers to including or linking these data series;

23                             (D) what data-sharing infrastructure should 24                             be used to facilitate data merging and access for 25                             research purposes;

1                   (E) how a clearinghouse could be self-funded;
2

3                   (F) which types of researchers, officials, and 4                   institutions should have access to data and what 5                   the qualifications of the researchers, officials, and 6                   institutions should be;

7                   (G) what limitations should be placed on 8                   the use of data provided;

9                   (H) how to protect information and ensure 10                  individual privacy and confidentiality;

11                  (I) how data and results of research can be 12                  used to inform program administrators and pol-13                  icymakers to improve program design; and 14                  (J) what incentives may facilitate inter-15                  agency sharing of information to improve pro-

16                  grammatic effectiveness and enhance data accu-17                  racy and comprehensiveness.

18                  (c) REPORT.—Upon the affirmative vote of at least 19                  three-quarters of the members of the Commission, the Com-20                  mission shall submit to the President and Congress a de-21                  tailed statement of its findings and conclusions as a result 22                  of the activities required by subsections (a) and (b), together
23                  with its recommendations for such legislation or adminis-
24                  trative actions as the Commission considers appropriate in 25                  light of the results of the study.

1       (d) DEADLINE.—The report under subsection (c) shall 2 be submitted not later than the date that is 15 months after 3 the date a majority of the members of the Commission are
